VISION & MISSION

Our vision is to liberate the next generation of women from the barriers and challenges that compromise them so that young girls can more fully reveal all of the unique strengths and talents that they have to offer society. Our mission is to help girls define themselves as women.

ORGANIZATIONAL GOALS

Our goals are to foster cultural uniqueness among a diverse group of girls, to develop the individual strengths of each young lady and to celebrate the brilliance that makes us all women.

Dear LCL Supporter

LCL believes that women need to collectively define and refine their strengths as we become a dominant force in the american workforce. To support the next generation of women, LCL hosted a series of workshops and activities during this July / August of 2010. Each activity was designed to help young women think more broadly about themselves as leaders in their family, community and society.

Finding Our Strengths Together As Women

Each year LCL co-sponsors a workshop with our Big Sisters from Diaspora Spirit. This year we focused on helping each girl to broaden their understanding of themselves by defining their strengths. Each participants had the opportunity to take the Strengths Finders for Teens assessment. Claudette Roper, Media Artist and Writer, then facilitated a workshop to help each of the participants to embrace their strengths and to apply their strengths towards their personal and professional goals.

Participants for the 2010 Community Workshop included the young women of Las Caras Lindas and Global Girls. With the help of their mentors from Diaspora Spirit, participants identified some of their top goals and set a plan to make progress on becoming the incredible women that they are and the young women that they have always envisioned. Thank you to Maria Carillo for sponsoring the LCL Strength Finders Assessment.

Embracing Our Strengths Tea Party

LCL's 3rd Annual Tea Party was well attended! This year we co-hosted the Tea Party with Diaspora Spirit as a follow-up to the Strengths Finders

LCL SUPPORTERS

LCL is truly grateful to all of our supporters for the 2010 Cultural Immersion Trip! We were able to raise over $3,500 for our trip to Puerto Rico

A special thank you to the following individuals who contributed $500 or more:

Mike Walker, PhD
Director, Educational Testing Services

Ann Avery,
Founder and President of
Worldview Education and Care

We would also like to thank the following community sponsors:

Workshop. The young women of LCL and Global Girls were able to re-introduce themselves with their strengths in mind. All acknowledged the progress that they had made on the goals that they set the previous week at the workshop.

Many mentoring relationships were solidified and developed during the 2010 Tea Party. We are grateful to Global Girls for their participation and the women of Diaspora Spirit for sharing their time, knowledge and wisdom! LCL would also like to thank Maria Carillo and Angela Anderson for hosting the 2010 LCL / Diaspora Spirit Tea Party.

LCL...Doing What We Do And Having Fun!

As a part of our commitment to helping girls to define themselves as women LCL also participated in several other activities throughout Chicago, including a leadership development workshop for young women provided by National-Louis University and a film screening for a independent film called Going On 13 hosted by the Community Classroom! LCL was also on Harv Roman's Wake Up Dancing Club Kids Radio Show on WCEV 1450 AM broadcast and highlighted at Ponce@Nite August Poetry slam event.
